West Bloomfield Parks Puts a New Spin on its Traditional Concert Series

Marshbank Music 2.0 includes three nights of free music, food trucks and a beer/wine tent.

West Bloomfield, June 12, 2018 – West Bloomfield Parks has given one of the community's favorite traditions, music in the park, a facelift starting July 11th. The event series has been revamped to be bigger and better with double the bands each night, rotating food trucks and a beer/wine tent. The free series will run three times during July at Marshbank Park, 2805 Hiller Road, West Bloomfield Township, MI 48324.

This year's lineup is as follows:

- July 11, 6 pm – Valerie Baltimore & the Foundation Funk; 7:30 pm – Groove Council
- July 18, 6 pm – Audrey Ray; 7:30 pm – Collision 6
- July 25, 6 pm – The Randy Brock Group; 7:30 pm – Cosmic Groove

The rotating food trucks will include the following:

- July 11, Grillwich Tot Stop, GoCheez and Kona Ice
- July 18, Bigalora, Norma G's and Kona Ice
- July 25, Hunter House, Street Side Sushi and Kona Ice

“We wanted to transition our time-honored tradition of music in the park into more of an exciting, all-inclusive event,” said Kelly Hyer, recreation superintendent of West Bloomfield Parks. “We’re really excited for all the changes we’ve made and the opportunity to bring the community together in a new way.”

Food and alcohol service will begin at 5 pm. The beer and wine tent is provided by and in support of Lakeland Youth Baseball League.

Marshbank Music 2.0 is presented by ITC Holdings Corp.
