“Our goal is to create a signature summer event for West Bloomfield families,” said Kelly Hyer, recreation superintendent of West Bloomfield Parks. “We’ve found a way to combine traditional summer outdoor activities with some fun elements typically found at a fair or festival to create an event everyone in the family can enjoy.”

Marshbank Park will be closed to the general public from 8 am – 11 am in preparation of Summer on the Bank. Dogs will not be allowed at the event. Bathing suits and towels are recommended. Cash is required for pay-to-play activities. For complete details, visit www.wbparks.org/sotb.

Summer on the Bank is presented by Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital.
